Advent and Christmas Seasons

Jesus Christ: King of Kings and Lord of Lords ~

The national timetable for the holiday season goes something like this: Thanksgiving, then the day after; begin the month-long preparation for Christmas by shopping and decorating; then celebrate Christmas (mostly on Christmas Eve); then on December 26 start returning to normal. The point of all that fuss is family and the “holiday spirit.” Sound about right? Of course, that’s not what the Christian focus was or how Christians acted did prior to materialism becoming our national religion. Nor should it be our focus and practice today.

We are now in the season of Advent and shortly enough, the season of Christmas. Historically this time of year for Christians was a more deliberate, quiet, and peaceful time; not more hectic and stressful. A time in which Christians historically slowed down and simplified, becoming more mindful of the special, hidden, coming of Jesus Christ; and the time that follows with the baby Jesus, the Prince of Peace. It still can be, if we are mindful about the true nature of this special time.

Wars and the threat of them are breaking out around the world, the world’s economy is fragile and tottering, democracies are tottering too, climate change is wreaking havoc on ecosystems, abortion (baby killing) is a sacred right, as is pornography, fornication, adultery, sodomy and now transgenderism. The world has lost its peace because it has lost the Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ: the Way, the Truth, and the Life. More news, music, shopping and fretting is not going to restore that peace or make anyone happier.

This Advent and Christmas season put the Prince of Peace first. Slow down. Make some changes. Make a point of less screen time and less focus on shopping and materialism, and more intentional about daily prayer, daily silent time, and daily spiritual reading. The ancient enemy already robs us of our peace; don’t add fuel to his fire this season by being frenetic. Slow down, get smaller, get quieter, get peaceful, get Jesus.

Let’s intentionally make daily time for Our Lord by consciously slowing down inside of ourselves through prayer and spiritual reading, with less time with the radio and TV on, and a lot less time on our smart phones. Here are some ideas that could be helpful, calming antidotes to the seasonal frenzy:

- Spend more of the day with Jesus on your mind.
- Establish time daily for prayer. Especially consider the Rosary, a great family devotion.
- Start reading the Bible, or any one of those Catholic books you haven’t started reading or put down a long time ago.
- Go to Confession at least once during Advent. On Thursday, December 21st, there will be eight priests here to hear Confessions for our annual Advent penance service. Between that opportunity and our normally scheduled Confessions, please make it a point to go. Reminder: Fridays from 4:00-5:15, Saturdays from 2:30-4:15pm, and on Sundays before the Masses from 7:45-8:15am & 10-10:45am. Please don’t wait to the last minute. Others have that idea too and many will lose out.
- Attend a weekday Mass if you can. Monday through Saturday morning at 8:30am.

May Almighty God Bless You,

Fr. Thomas Nathe

CCS/CHS 2023 APPEAL FOR THE POOR

THANK YOU
TO PARISHES AND SUPPORTERS WHO SHARE THE LIGHT OF HOPE
WITH TENS OF THOUSANDS OF NEIGHBORS SERVED
BY 190 CCS/CHS PROGRAMS IN WESTERN WASHINGTON

2023 CCS/CHS SOUTHWEST PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- ★ The Family Housing Network partnered with the City of Tacoma to create 20 Safe Parking spaces on the former Holy Rosary campus. Guests who live in their vehicles are invited to use the hygiene facilities, laundry, and 24/7 case management on the pathway to stability and permanent housing. Area parishes provide meals and other support.
- ★ In Olympia, a partnership with Providence St. Peter Hospital allows CCS to convert two Drexel House shelter beds to medical respite care for medically fragile elderly and disabled guests.
- ★ CCSWW received $2.7 million from USDA's Farm Worker Relief Program through Catholic Charities USA, one of 14 nonprofit organizations and one tribal entity selected nationwide to provide direct grants to help agricultural households impacted by COVID-19, including residents at CHS housing in Lewis, Clark, and Cowlitz Counties.
- ★ Network Builder Isabel Cisneros Rueda, a member of the Archdiocesan Mental Health Committee, was the first to receive and subsequently provide "safeTALK" suicide prevention training in Spanish to the Latino community in our region.
- ★ CCS SW now provides Housing and Essential Needs (HEN), a housing stability program funded by the state, in Thurston County under the seasoned leadership of the HEN team in Kitsap County.
- ★ In its first year of operation, Bertha's I and Bertha's II, 88 new shelter units serving veterans and older people experiencing homelessness in Vancouver, helped more than 80 residents move on to permanent housing.
- ★ Supportive Services for Veteran Families (SSVF) program has helped over 400 veterans and veteran families at risk for homelessness find housing stability through Rapid Rehousing and other CCS homelessness prevention programs in Cowlitz, Grays Harbor, Kitsap, Lewis, Mason, Pacific, Pierce, Thurston, and Wahkiakum counties.

COMMUNITIES OF CONCERN

CCS/CHS actively participates in the Communities of Concern Commission, a statewide coalition of Black, Indigenous, and Communities of Color in urban and rural areas disproportionately affected by poverty.

FAMILY BEHAVIORAL HEALTH

CCS FBH is a recognized leader and pioneer among state behavioral agencies. This year, FBH hosted child welfare experts and agency leaders from Japan seeking to learn how to better address and prevent child abuse and neglect using programs like our Wraparound with Intensive Services (WISe). 95% of the thousands of children and youth we served last year with intensive mental health treatment, integrated pediatric outpatient services, crisis response, and de-escalation remained safely with their families.

IMMIGRATION

Catholic Charities USA awarded CCSWW two grants in 2023 to provide asylum-seekers in our region with help and support. A $25,000 grant provided direct financial assistance to clients of CCS' Catholic Immigration Legal Services (CILS). CCSWW divided the second grant of $350,000 between CILS and 41 parishes providing emergency services and supplies to refugees in their communities.

LONG TERM CARE (LTC)

CCS Long Term Care (LTC). Last year, we served 4,600 homebound elders and others with disabilities, helping to keep people in their homes in all 19 counties of western Washington. This year, thanks in part to CCS LTC advocacy, more low-income clients are benefiting from "the most significant anti-poverty change in Long Term Care in many years:" the increase of their personal needs allowance from 100% to 300% of the Federal Poverty Level (FPL).

NETWORK BUILDERS

Every year, CCS Network Builders work regionally to support service ministries in our deaneries and parishes, connecting the faithful to the people we serve. This year, CCS Network Builders are finding ways to support parish service ministries as they discern the path ahead through the Partners in the Gospel process.

PREPARES (PREGNANCY AND PARENTING SUPPORT)

One hundred four parish partners have joined the CCSWW Pregnancy and Parenting Support Program, offering vulnerable families the promise of support and assistance from pregnancy to their child's fifth birthday, including food, clothing, diapers, parenting classes, and referrals to social services. This year, parish volunteers offered special events including community baby showers for high school Teen Parent programs, and participation in Welcome Circle Family Days for refugees.
