Thank You for Allowing Me (Mr. Ed) to Serve You!!!

As I sail off into retirement and the many adventures and opportunities I am sure it holds; I wanted to take a moment to thank each of you for allowing me to serve you as your Facilities Steward and Administrator for the last 15+ years. I am so grateful for the overwhelming Love and support each of you have given me as I did my best to serve you and grow His church. (May 3rd was my last day.)

As the saying goes, “the more you give the more you get,” I have found that to be true throughout my life but never more fully so than during my service at Holy Redeemer. I am so thankful for all the personal and spiritual growth God has blessed me with while serving His church. Whether you realize it or not each of you has been a huge part of that through your prayers, your help (whether through time, talent, or treasure (or in many cases all three)) and your accompaniment and encouragement on my journey. We cannot make it to heaven on our own, God made it so we have to journey together and help each other along the way, and I believe that is one of the things that makes Holy Redeemer so special in God’s eyes. We are focused on helping each other to get to heaven against all the temptations and attacks by the Evil One that are ever present in today’s world.

Many of you have asked me why I am retiring and that is an incredibly good question. The best answer I can give is by stating the Benedictine motto “ora et labora” which means prayer and work. I have been prayerfully discerning when the right time for me to retire is and through this discernment it came to me that now is the time. I need to spend more time praying (lots more) and doing good works. As I went through this process it seemed that my Guardian Angel or the Holy Spirit (or both) kept telling me that there might be someone else that needs this job now. Throughout my life this is something I have always been mindful about: am I keeping someone else from having this great job, someone that needs it more than me? I hope that I am right and that there is a great replacement for me that can take what I have done and run with it and continuously improve upon it, and at the same time grow in holiness. As I always like to say, “God has a plan!”

I had the pleasure of serving under two amazing priests – what more can I say? God has truly blessed our parish with holy men to lead us to Him.

I also have to mention the amazing staff and volunteers that I was so blessed to work with, without them I could not have accomplished anything. Allowing each person to give from the gifts and talents God gave them is what keeps this parish going and growing in holiness. I couldn’t have dreamed of or asked for a better group of folks to work with. There are far too many to list and you all know who you are, I hope that I have personally expressed my gratitude for your help over the years and if not, please forgive me and know now how much I appreciate YOU and your help.

Lastly, I need to thank my family (especially my wife) for all the sacrifices they have made over the many years that have allowed me to serve you to the best of my ability. They have been so gracious in accepting the sometimes-crazy schedule I maintained just to get everything done and make sure all events at the Parish were running well, not to mention many very long days where they barely even got to see me. Their support and Love have been invaluable.

Blessings,
Ed Brands (aka Mr. Ed)

P.S. I am not going anywhere (that I know of), so God willing, you will still see me active in our Parish just serving in a different way and role for many years!
