The Eucharist

Part 17 of 20

Jesus Christ: Yesterday, Today and Forever ~

Today we continue our twenty part series on the Eucharist using Trent Horn's book: 20 Answers-The Eucharist. In case you missed any of the first sixteen, you can find them here <https://www.holyredeemervan.org/documents/collection/pastor-s-column>. This is in keeping with Archbishop Etienne's pastoral letter on the Eucharist that you can find here (in case you missed it) <http://www.seattlearchdiocese.org/Assets/ARCH/NWC-Feature-ABE-Pastoral-Letter-snglpg.pdf>. Question #17:

What did the Second Vatican Council teach about the Eucharist?

The Mass and the sacrament of the Eucharist are discussed throughout the documents of the Second Vatican Council. For example, the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, Sacrosanctum Concilium, teaches that the Eucharist holds a central place in the life of the Church. It says:

The liturgy is the summit toward which the activity of the Church is directed; at the same time it is the font from which all her power flows. For the aim and object of apostolic works is that all who are made sons of God by faith and baptism should come together to praise God in the midst of his Church, to take part in the sacrifice, and to eat the Lord's supper.

The Decree on the Ministry and Life of Priests, or Presbyterorum Ordinis, also testifies to the uniqueness and centrality of this sacrament. It says:

The other sacraments, as well as with every ministry of the Church and every work of the apostolate, are tied together with the Eucharist and are directed toward it. The most Blessed Eucharist contains the entire spiritual boon of the Church, that is, Christ himself, our Pasch and Living Bread, by the action the Holy Spirit through his very flesh vital and vitalizing, giving life to men who are thus invited and encouraged to offer themselves, their labors and all created things, together with him.

If the Eucharist holds such a central place in the life of the Church, and the Eucharist can exist only when bread and wine are consecrated by a priest with valid holy orders, then it logically follows that the mission of the priest is also central to the life of the Church. Ad Gentes, the Decree on the Missionary Activity of the Church, puts it this way: “By means of their own ministry - which consists principally in the Eucharist which perfects the Church - they are in communion with Christ the Head and are leading others to this communion.”

SYMBOLON: EP. 1 - THE JOURNEY: TRINITY, FAITH AND THE GOD WHO IS LOVE

The Bible reveals the mystery of who God is: God is love. God created us out of love, died for us out of love, and invites us on a journey of faith in which we live in his love. In this study, we'll look at the God who is Love and how that love shows itself in the Trinity and the Faith.

The Catholic Cemetery”

A Sacred Place

Catholic cemeteries exist because of our belief in the resurrection of the body at the end of time. If there was no promise of eternal life, there would be no need for Catholic cemeteries.

The Catholic cemetery is sacred, not only because of a blessing or consecration, but also by the sacred function it performs on behalf of the entire Christian community: It holds the bodies, once temples of the Holy Spirit, until the Lord comes again in glory.

As a sacred place, a Catholic cemetery is a place that serves the faithful and witnesses to the entire world the Good News of Jesus Christ and the hope we share in resurrection.

Let Us Serve You

For well over 140 years, Mother Joseph Catholic Cemetery of Vancouver has provided sacred burial for families in Vancouver and the surrounding area.

PARISH HAPPENINGS

Treasures of the Church: On June 10th right here at Holy Redeemer you can see over 150 sacred relics, including those of all twelve Apostles, St. Joseph, St. Maria Goretti, St. Therese of Lisieux (the "Little Flower"), St. Francis of Assisi, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Thomas Aquinas, and St. Faustina Kowalska. Two highlights are some of the largest extent fragments of Wood from the True Cross and a fragment of Our Lady's Veil. The Holy Father has issued a plenary indulgence for all attendees of a Treasures of the Church exposition. Mark your calendar and bring friends and family.

Church Completion Update: Our landscaping has been approved: THANK YOU to all of the volunteers that helped with it and to our great Landscaping Committee that made it all happen! The contractor should be turning the building over to us very soon. As soon as that happens we will start readying the Adoration Chapel for use-stay tuned.

172nd Ave. Entrance: Great news, at long last we are able to use the entrance/exit from 172nd Ave. again. For the Vigil and Sunday Masses all the doors of the Church are unlocked now for easier access.

Rummage Sale: We will not be having our annual Rummage Sale in June. There is a possibility that we might have one in the Fall but we will have to see how COVID is doing before planning that. Stay tuned...

Calling all ushers, greeters, lectors, and extraordinary ministers of communion (EMs): We need you-please signup to serve through the end of June using this link: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/8050444afa82aa46-sign9>

A friendly reminder: Clark County is in phase 3 now so you do not need to signup for Mass. Masks still must be worn so be sure to bring one! Please be welcoming and allow your fellow parishioners to sit next to you-it is kind and safe to do so.

We will continue to record the Masses so that those who cannot attend may participate at home.

Staying Close to Jesus

Angelus: We live stream the Angelus and prayer to Our Lady of Seattle for the end of the coronavirus Monday through Friday at noon and we invite you to join. The prayers are streamed through Facebook Live on our parish Facebook page. You do not need a Facebook account to view the stream. Facebook may prompt you to create an account, but you can simply say "Not Now" and watch the video.

Evening Prayer: To help those at home stay close to Jesus, we have taken this ministry online and are making it more frequent. Join us Monday through Thursday at 5:00pm for Evening Prayer. The prayers are streamed through Facebook Live on our parish Facebook page. Download This Week's Evening Prayers Here
