The Precepts of the Catholic Faith

Fourth of Seven Part Series

You can read the first three parts on our website www.holyredeemervan.org under 'pastor columns'

Jesus Christ: yesterday, today, and forever.

This week we continue our series on the Precepts of the Catholic Church: "pre" meaning "before", and "cept" meaning "life" – before there can be full life in God, these seven laws must be observed. Failure to live them out would constitute a mortal sin: when one has knowledge of them, and acts without undue coercion to disregard them. "The obligatory character of these positive laws decreed by pastoral authorities is meant to guarantee to the faithful the very necessary minimum in the spirit of prayer and moral effort, in the growth in love of God and neighbor". Catechism #2041. This week we continue working our way through them by exploring the fourth precept. They are listed here again as a reminder.

The Precepts of the Catholic Church

1. To attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation and resting from servile works.
2. To observe the days of abstinence and fasting.
3. To confess our sins to a priest, at least once a year.
4. To receive Our Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist at least once a year during the Easter Season.
5. To contribute to the support of the Church (tithing & volunteering).
6. To obey the laws of the Church concerning Matrimony.

To participate in the Church's mission of Evangelization of Souls.

Remember the first precept, that we are obligated to attend Mass on all the Holy Days of Obligation, and Sunday is always a Holy Day of Obligation. However, we are not obligated to receive the Holy Eucharist (Communion) at each of those Masses, for that-we need to be in a "state of grace" or free of mortal sin. Concerning the fourth precept, as evident by the percentage of people who receive the Holy Communion at Mass, most Catholics in the U.S. assume that they are supposed to receive Holy Communion if they attend Mass, this is not correct. Only those who are Catholic, have received their 1st Communion, and are not aware of unconfessed mortal sin are able to receive Holy Communion. God says to us through St. Paul in 1 Corinthians 11:27-30 "This means that whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily sins against the body and blood of the Lord. A man should examine himself first; only then should he eat of the bread and drink of the cup. He who eats and drinks without recognizing the body eats and drinks a judgment on himself. That is why many among you are sick and infirm, and why so many are dying." It is a mortal sin to receive Holy Communion in a state of mortal sin. The last thing we want to do at Mass is commit a mortal sin!

We are obligated to put into practice precepts three and four at least once a year during the season of Lent or the season of Easter, both of which are about seven weeks long. We do this by going to Confession, and while still in a state of grace, receiving Holy Communion at Mass.

Next week: Precept #5

May Our Lord and His Blessed Mother Keep You,

Women's Spiritual Studies:

Through their small groups, women are learning how to be the best version of themselves—made in the image and likeness of God—and reaching out to those around them. For more information: contact Jamie at jamiiek@holyredeemervanc.org

The SEEL Retreat 2021-2022: SEEL Portland is a ministry of Jesuits West which gives people the opportunity to experience the Spiritual Exercises of Saint Ignatius in their everyday lives over a period of nine months. The Spiritual Exercises are composed of meditations, prayers, and contemplative practices developed by St. Ignatius Loyola to help people deepen their relationship with God. Due to current health concerns, the retreat will be an online experience. We are excited to be able to offer the Spiritual Exercises in a format that will open the retreat experience to graces in unexpected ways. The retreat will offer: one-on-one spiritual direction twice a month, a two-and-a-half hour monthly retreat, small group sharing/listening, and a book for reflection and prayer 2021-2022 Online SEEL Retreat applications accepted June 10, 2021 - August 10, 2021.

PARISH HAPPENINGS

Church Completion Update: We received of final occupancy permit on Monday July 12th!

Adoration Chapel is Open: Alas, on Saturday July 17th our new Adoration Chapel opened for private prayer! For now the Adoration Chapel will be open from 7am-5:30Pm daily except for on Fridays since we have adoration in the Church on Fridays. The keypad lock to allow 24/7 access has been ordered but delivery is not expected until the end of September. Once it is installed and working we will move to 24/7 access Saturday-Thursday. Please remember that this is still very much a work in progress as we do not even have a plan for the final decoration of the Adoration Chapel yet. Over the next year you will see gradual improvements as we move towards our final vision as we determine what exactly that is with your input!

Family Promise: Great news-we are back to serving our families at the Outpost in Washougal, August 1-8. Please go to our website to signup for a shift or to bring a meal; follow this link <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/8050444afa82aa46-family8>

Thank You: A big THANKS to everyone that has made a pledge to the Annual Catholic Appeal so far, we have exceeded our goal which means the we will receive over $75,000 in rebates from the Archdiocese which will be used to pay down the loan on our new Adoration Chapel. If you have not made a pledge yet it's not too late and every dollar you donate to the ACA will be used to pay down our debt. Father Nathe was so happy to hear we were over our goal-please keep him in your prayers.

Calling all ushers, greeters, lectors, and extraordinary ministers of communion (EMs): We need you-please signup to serve through the end of June using this link: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/8050444afa82aa46-sign9>

Holy Water: Holy Water is back in our Baptistry and at the church doors now. We are continually getting back to how things used to be. Please come back to Mass now if at all possible-we miss you!

We will continue to record the Masses so that those who cannot attend may participate at home.

Staying Close to Jesus

Angelus: We live stream the Angelus and prayer to Our Lady of Seattle for the end of the coronavirus Monday through Friday at noon and we invite you to join. The prayers are streamed through Facebook Live on our parish Facebook page. You do not need a Facebook account to view the stream. Facebook may prompt you to create an account, but you can simply say "Not Now" and watch the video.

Evening Prayer: To help those at home stay close to Jesus, we have taken this ministry online and are making it more frequent. Join us Monday through Thursday at 5:00pm for Evening Prayer. The prayers are streamed through Facebook Live on our parish Facebook page. Download This Week's Evening Prayers Here
