The Eucharist

Part 5 of 20

Jesus Christ: Yesterday, Today, and Forever ~

Today we continue our twenty part series on the Eucharist. In case you missed the first four, you can find them here <https://www.holyredeemervan.org/documents/collection/pastor-s-column>. This is in keeping with Archbishop Etienne's pastoral letter on the Eucharist that you can find here (in case you missed it) <http://www.seattlearchdiocese.org/Assets/ARCH/NWC-Feature-ABE-Pastoral-Letter-snglpg.pdf>. Enjoy.

May God Bless You,

Fr. Thomas Nathe

Question #5:

Wasn't Jesus commanding the apostles to host a perpetual memorial dinner in his honor instead of commanding them to literally eat his body and blood?

When this question is asked it betrays either-or thinking. Specifically, it forces us to accept the false dilemma that either the Eucharist is a memorial dinner in honor of Christ or that it is a sacrifice involving his literal body and blood. But why can't it be both? The Church teaches that the Eucharist is certainly a memorial meal, but it is not only a memorial. According to the Catechism:

At the Last Supper, on the night he was betrayed, our Savior instituted the Eucharistic sacrifice of his Body and Blood. This he did in order to perpetuate the sacrifice of the cross throughout the ages until he should come again, and so to entrust to his beloved Spouse, the Church, a memorial of his death and Resurrection: a sacrament of love, a sign of unity, a bond of charity, a Paschal banquet in which Christ is consumed, the mind is filled with grace, and a pledge of future glory is given to us (CCC 1323).

Jesus said, "Do this in memory of me," and the words "in memory" come from the Greek word anamnesis, which means more than a mental recollection of a past event or person. It means instead, a "remembrance brought about by the act of sacrifice." An example of this can be found in Leviticus 24:7-8, in which the Israelite priest and his sons are instructed to offer a memorial sacrifice of bread to the Lord each Sabbath. The verses say, "You shall put pure frankincense with each row, that it may go with the bread as a memorial (anamnesis) portion to be offered by fire to the Lord. Every Sabbath day Aaron shall set it in order before the Lord continually on behalf of the sons of Israel as a covenant forever." The original Hebrew word for memorial in this passage, azkarah, also means "memorial offering."

The parallel between this and the sacrifice of the Mass, at which holy bread is offered on the new Sabbath to commemorate the new, everlasting covenant in Christ, is uncanny. Similarly when Jesus said, “Do this in memory of me,” he did not mean simply, “Remember me when you eat this meal.” A more accurate translation of Jesus’ command would be, “Receive me as a memorial sacrifice.” The first Christians, who were raised in Judaism, would have had no difficulty understanding that a memorial dinner can bring about the actual presence of God. Bible scholar Brant Pitre puts it this way:

Just as God had been really present to his people in the tabernacle of Moses and the temple of Solomon, so now Jesus would be really and truly present to his disciples through the Eucharist. And just as the old bread of the Presence had been the sign of God’s “everlasting covenant,” so now the Eucharist would become the perpetual sign of the new covenant, sealed in his blood.

One final objection to the idea that Christ was instituting a sacrifice and not just a memorial meal was that Jesus was present at the Last Supper. How could Jesus have offered up a sacrifice of himself when the apostles could still see him? Did Jesus receive himself at the Last Supper?

The synoptic Gospels describe Jesus and the apostles eating this meal as a group, so it is improbable that Jesus abstained while the others ate. But how could Christ receive his own body and blood. It’s important to remember that Christ’s physical presence in the Eucharist is not limited by space and time. Dominican theologian Giles Dimock says, “(Christ) is not present in a merely physical way, but more like that of a glorified body, which according to St. Thomas, has qualities beyond the physical, without forsaking its bodiliness.”

This ability to transcend the spatial and the temporal allowed Christ to be physically present both in a human body before the disciples and also in the bread at the Last Supper. St. Thomas Aquinas said it was fitting that Christ would receive himself at the Last Supper, “Because Christ himself was the first to fulfill what he required others to observe: hence he willed first to be baptized when imposing baptism upon others: as we read in Acts 1:1: ‘Jesus began to do and to teach.’ Hence he first of all took his own body and blood, and afterwards gave it to be taken by the disciples.”

Finally, the New Testament gives us abundant evidence that Jesus envisioned the bread that would be offered in the Eucharist as something other than ordinary bread. For example, several Church Fathers translated the phrase “Give us this day our daily bread” (Mt 6:11) as “Give us this day our supernatural bread,” to more closely align with the original Greek text. Moreover, when Jesus appeared to the disciples on the road to Emmaus, he hid his identity until after he blessed and broke bread with them. In other words, Jesus made it clear that after his Resurrection his disciples would not see Jesus in a human form, but that he would instead be “known to them in the breaking of the bread” (Lk 24:35).

Dear Parents and Grandparents....

80% of Catholics who stop practicing their faith do so before their 23rd birthday, most while in college. College Connection is a brand-new program from Real Life Catholic aimed at helping college students protect what is most important: their Catholic faith. PARISH HAPPENINGS

Parking Lot: Starting November 2nd we will be closing the entrances to our parking lot at the end of the day (after the last scheduled event) and opening them in the morning. The entrances will remain open Friday night for Adoration. We routinely have people doing donuts in the parking lot, gathering, and making noise while doing who knows what, and this is disruptive for our neighbors. We have also had our sheds broken into several times and just recently someone drove off with the trailer for Trail Life which had most of their camping gear in it. Thank you for your understanding.

Christmas Wreaths: Trail Life Wreath Sales coming soon. We will be selling Christmas wreaths for our annual Trail Life fundraiser. Wreaths will be displayed in the Parish Hall and Narthex and able to order from Oct 31 to Nov 15. Order forms will be near the wreaths or online in the Bulletin. Please support your local Trail Life Troop!

Staying Close to Jesus

Angelus: We live stream the Angelus and prayer to Our Lady of Seattle for the end of the coronavirus Monday through Friday at noon and we invite you to join. The prayers are streamed through Facebook Live on our parish Facebook page. You do not need a Facebook account to view the stream. Facebook may prompt you to create an account, but you can simply say "Not Now" and watch the video.

Evening Prayer: To help those at home stay close to Jesus, we have taken this ministry online and are making it more frequent. Join us Monday through Thursday at 5:00pm for Evening Prayer. The prayers are streamed through Facebook Live on our parish Facebook page. Download This Week's Evening Prayers Here

Public Masses Have Resumed: We are back to our regular Mass schedule (see the front of the bulletin), and you have to sign up in advance to attend Mass. You can sign up by going to our home page and clicking on the button for Daily or Sunday Mass. Be sure to read all of the requirements on the signup and its attachments before signing up! We will continue to record the Masses so that those who cannot attend may participate at home.

OTHER HAPPENINGS

40 Days for Life: Pray, fast and offer alternatives to save lives, hearts and souls from the violence of abortion and help broken hearts heal after abortion. Our local campaign webpage has resources you can use at home where many will participate due to Covid-19 pandemic restrictions in Clark County. Since 2007 world-wide 17,226 babies and their parents have been saved from abortion...and these are just the ones we know of. Questions? Problems? Call/text the local coordinator Gerry Parmantier at 360-831-7542.

Considering Separation or Divorce?: Wait! There is an alternative. Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vi) has brought healing to tens of thousands of troubled marriages worldwide. Your situation may seem hopeless, but there is always hope, and you are not alone in your struggle. Due to the pandemic, we now have virtual programs available. For confidential information about Retrouvaille, call 206-706-2608 or go to www.helpourmarriage.org.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Parish Office Secretary: Our Lady Star of the Sea seeks applicants for a part-time parish office secretary (approx. 15 hours per week-flexible). The successful candidate will be a practicing Catholic who has excellent communication and interpersonal skill, must have familiarity with all aspects of Microsoft Office suite, be a detail oriented and team-player. This position works as a part of the St. Thomas staff team. The secretarial position is responsible for a wide variety of tasks, requiring responsibility and confidentiality. For a complete job description and application contact lorrie@stthomascamas.org

The Catholic Church does not endorse any candidates or political parties, but the Church does advocate for public policies that serve the common good and are aligned with Church teachings. When considering political candidates' views on public policies, we recommend reading Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, published by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB).
