Pastor's Column

November 13th, 2022

God Made Us for Heaven – Focus on That

Jesus Christ: Yesterday, Today, and Forever~

I write this pastor's column on the day of the election, November 8, not knowing the outcomes. The people of the world, and I mean people all around the world, are filled with anxieties of one kind or another. Most of that anxiety is personal and familial, and some of it is societal.

Anxiety began in the Garden of Eden when Adam and Eve sinned; out of fear they hid from God and didn't answer Him immediately. They were afraid of what God might do to them – kill them – because that's what God said He'd do if they would touch the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. Of course, God, always the promise keeper, did eventually take their lives, just centuries later.

At its core, anxiety is caused by the fear of death. If we had no fear of death and what lay beyond it, we'd have no fear for ourselves other than physical pain. For example, if I knew that when I died, regardless of when, that my death would be physically, emotionally, and mentally painless; that heaven waited for me in all its splendor, and that there was no more good I could do on earth toward my eternity in heaven, then my anxieties would cease. Frankly, I'd feel like I was five again and its Christmas Eve, just longing for the big day without a thought about anyone or anything else.

Alas, we frequently take for granted our faith in Jesus Christ and His triumph over sin and death. We shouldn't, because that lack of faith is the key to our anxiety. It's the key to any election or national anxiety too. Imagine all those poor people the world over, who don't walk with Jesus. When things don't go according to their plans, anxiety about many things and ultimately death, set in. Let me give you an example of how this works.

1. Things didn't go my way on election day
2. Our country will fall apart because people aren't doing what I want them to do
3. Our country eventually falls apart
4. We all live a dystopian nightmare until we die.

Now here's an example of how things work for the person who seeks to know, love, and serve Jesus Christ intentionally every day.

1. Things didn't go God's way on election day
2. Our country will fall apart because we abandoned God
3. Our country eventually falls apart
4. We return to living like the people in the Bible lived: off the land without electronics, with God being number one, and family being number two. We live with so much more love and peace than we did before everything fell apart.

The difference between the peace of mind of a true Christian and everyone else, is simply staggering, don't take it for granted. Share your faith in Jesus with an anxious and troubled world, because they won't have any until they are living under the reign of Jesus Christ: the Lord of Lords, and the King of Kings; who will come to judge the living and dead, burn the world by fire, create new heavens and a new earth; end sin, suffering, death, and anxiety.

May Almighty God Bless You,

Fr. Thomas Nathe

PARISH STEWARDSHIP TIME. TALENT. TREASURE.

“For we are God’s handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.”

Ephesians 2:10

YOUR TALENT
IS GOD’S GIFT
TO YOU. HOW WILL YOU USE
IT FOR HIM?

Everything we have is a gift from God and we’re called to share these gifts with others. Often stewardship is equated to money, but we are more than the sum of our material value.

Sharing our talents is one way we can live a life of stewardship. God entrusted us with our individual talents to help build up His Kingdom. Today we are called to share through service and ministry. What talent could you bring to our parish community?

If you haven’t already decided on your parish stewardship commitment, please prayerfully consider God’s gifts to you and make your pledge. Please return your parish stewardship commitment form today in the collection basket, to the parish office, or through the mail.

GROWING IN HOLINESS

THIS WEEK ON FORMED

Week of November 13, 2022

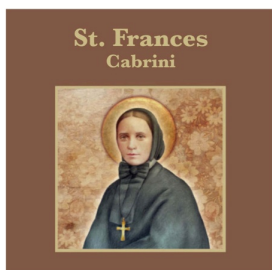

Saints Peter and Paul

Join Dr. Ben Akers and Taylor Kemp to expand your knowledge of sacred art. In this episode on FORMED, they discuss an icon depicting Sts. Peter and Paul.

St. Giuseppe Moscati

Giuseppe Moscati, "the holy physician of Naples," was a medical doctor and layman in the early twentieth century who came from an aristocratic family and devoted his medical career to serving the poor. Watch this beautiful film to be inspired by the example of this holy man.

St. Frances Cabrini

No one would have assumed that a sickly girl from Italy would be accepted into a convent nor travel far from home. Yet, St. Frances went on to prove both assumptions incorrect, becoming a nun and missionary who would establish schools, orphanages and hospitals all across America.

Last Thanksgiving, with your generosity, the Vancouver Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to provide Thanksgiving Food Boxes to 506 families, serving 1,411 people, including 120 food box deliveries. The Society is providing the program again this year, as many of our neighbors and families are feeling the effects of the lingering burdens of the pandemic, rising inflation, and the uncertainties of the current economy. We need your donations of non-perishable food items and financial support. Grocery bags have been delivered to your parish, and school children were encouraged to decorate the bags. Your food donation can be put in the designated area in your church or brought directly to our office at 2456 NE Stapleton Road, Vancouver, WA 98661, Monday-Friday from 9 AM to 3 PM. Financial support can be donated online through our secure site at www.svdpvancouverusa.org or you may send it directly to our office.

We will begin accepting phone calls from families wishing to register for a food box on Monday, October 24 at 10:00 am to 1:00 pm. We will continue subsequent days to take registration until our list is full. Our number is 360-694-5388. We are excited to share we will also provide online registration this year, by visiting our updated website at: <http://www.svdpvancouverusa.org>. Our Thanksgiving food boxes will be distributed on the morning of Saturday, November 19, 2022, during a scheduled time provided in advance to our families.
