Read Good Catholic News Sources

Jesus Christ: the Way, the Truth, and the Life ~

From time to time people ask me where they should be getting their Catholic news. That's a great question for anyone who wants to know the truth about what is going in the Catholic Church, and to be correctly formed and supported in their faith. Too many Catholic news sources ignore or sugar coat important issues of concern, or worse, mislead Catholics into believing falsehoods about the Catholic faith. Non-Catholic news sources intentionally run misleading stories to make the Catholic Church look bad, while championing heretical Catholics and denigrating faithful Catholics.

Inform yourself. Every week, or at least monthly, read news on what's going on in the Catholic Church from the lens of God. Be responsible and get your news from Catholic organizations that will tell you the whole story without the need for a splashy and misleading headline. Below are some that I recommend and a few I don't.

Here are some good Catholic news sources you can find on the internet or radio:

Catholic Radio 88.3FM KVBM – <https://materdeiradio.com>

EWTN – <https://www.ewtnnews.com>

Spirit Daily – <https://www.spiritdaily.com>

Catholic Culture News – <https://www.catholicculture.org/news>

Catholic News Agency – <https://www.catholicnewsagency.com>

The National Catholic Register – <https://www.ncregister.com>

Life Site News – <https://www.lifesitenews.com>

The Pillar – <https://www.pillaratholic.com>

First Things – <https://www.firstthings.com>

One Peter Five – <https://onepeterfive.com/category/church-news>

Our Sunday Visitor – <https://www.osvnews.com>

Here are some bad Catholic news sources that stand with the spirit of the age against what Christ and his disciples have always taught:

America Magazine, US Catholic, National Catholic Reporter, Commonweal.

May Almighty God Bless You,

Prayer for Labor Day

As the sun rises to bring in the new day:

We remember those who descend into the earth, their work begins in darkness, pulling from the earth, the resources we steward.

We remember those who work inside a building away from the light and brightness of the day.

We remember those who work outside in the harsh elements of our world, the bitter cold and sweltering heat of extremes.

We remember those who do not have a job to go to, who are struggling to meet the needs of their daily living expenses, for whom the day becomes long and arduous.

As the sun sets to bring in the evening of rest:

We remember those who work in the night.

We remember those who are trying to recover from their labor and toils of the day.

We remember those who participate in unsafe and dangerous work.

We pray for a renewed sense of dignity in their lives and in their work.

God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the worker. Make a place in our hearts for compassion to the men and women who labor tirelessly for basic necessities. Ensure a place for the men and women who are struggling to find work. Grant us your wisdom to greet and care for those who are unable to work due to illness or circumstances that prevent their participation. Be with the children who are not able to run and play, but instead must put in a hard day's work to help their family afford to eat, to live. Be with us all, Christ Jesus, as we go about the busyness of our work. Hold us accountable not only for our actions, but most importantly to each of our neighbors. May we continue to work together to bring about your reign!

We ask this in your holy name, through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
