November 6th, 2022

November and Prayers for the Dead

Jesus Christ: Yesterday, Today, and Forever ~

November is traditionally the month of the year where we pray for the dead. Why would we do that? Aren't all the dead in either heaven or hell? The souls in heaven and hell don't need our prayers, so why are we praying for the dead? Answer: because a huge number of the deceased are in Purgatory, and a smaller number of the dead haunt the earth. Consider the following account of such an incident.

"Reigning from 1198 to 1216, Pope Innocent III was one of the most influential and important pope's of his era. He granted St. Francis of Assisi and his small band of follower's permission to found the Order of Friars Minor; he convened the Fourth Lateran Council which, among other things, dogmatically defined the doctrine of transubstantiation; and he organized great efforts to combat heresy in Europe, and repel invading Muslim forces. Then, after more than 18 years as pope, he suddenly died. But that wasn't the last we heard from him."

"The story goes that on the day Pope Innocent III died, or soon thereafter, he appeared to St. Lutgardis of Aywieres in Belgium. St. Lutgardis is considered to have been one of the great mystics of the 13th century (1200's), known for her miracles, visions, levitation, and particularly adept teaching. When Pope Innocent appeared to her, he thanked her for her prayers during his lifetime, but explained that he was in trouble: he had not gone straight to heaven but was in purgatory, suffering its purifying fire for three specific faults he had committed during his life. And he made a desperate plea for help: 'Alas! It is terrible; and will last for centuries if you do not come to my assistance. In the name of Mary, who has obtained for me the favor of appealing to you, help me!' Then he vanished. With a sense of urgency, St. Lutgardis quickly told her fellow religious sisters what she had seen and prayed for his soul." – Story taken from ChurchPop Editor: www.churchpop.com November 1, 2015.

There is a prayerful spiritual bond between those in heaven, the Church triumphant: those in Purgatory, the Church suffering: and the Church on earth, the Church militant.

Almost all people who are going to heaven die as sinners. We know that vice and sin do not exist in heaven yet they exist in us. Fortunately for us, God has a plan for that – Purgatory – a word that derives from Latin meaning purgation, purification, or cleansing. Purgatory is the process by which God's justice for our sins is satisfied through our remorse (painful); and we are purified by God and prepared to enter heaven. This process of purgation lasts for various lengths of 'time' and intensity depending upon the state of each person's soul at death. The Catechism of the Catholic Church does a very good job of explaining what Purgatory is, as do the websites www.catholicanswers.org and www.newadvent.org.

On November 2nd we commemorated all those people who are in Purgatory with our prayers and sacrifices for their progress toward, and ultimate happiness, in the beatific vision of heaven. The whole month of November is a time when we pray for the dead and offer our Masses for them. Just as when someone on earth is in need of help we pray for them, so too do we pray for those in Purgatory. They can no longer pray for themselves, merit anything, or help themselves in anyway. So whatever we do for them is of great help: prayer, novenas, indulgences, cold showers, kindness towards others, fasting from: food, TV, internet, shopping, etc. Remember, do unto others as you would have them do unto you. If we pray and offer sacrifices for the dead in this life, the odds grow exponentially that someone will do the same for us when we die.

"I know when you pray for me, and it is the same with all of the other souls here in Purgatory. Very few of us here get any prayers; the majority of us are totally abandoned, with no thought or prayers offered for us from those on earth" --Message from a soul in Purgatory

Know too, that the holy souls in Purgatory (holy because they are no longer sinners) can pray for us too, and they appreciate the opportunity to do so. They are not only aware of our prayers and sacrifices for them, they are also aware of our requests for their help. So pray for your deceased loved ones, and those beyond your family who have no one to pray for them; and ask deceased family members to pray for you or your holy cause. With the assistance of the Church Triumphant and Militant, let's help all those who are in the Church Suffering pass over from this life into the beatific vision of heaven.

Here's a prayer from St. Faustina Kowalska for the holy souls in Purgatory:

Eternal Father, I offer you the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your Dearly Beloved Son, Our Lord, Jesus Christ, in atonement for the sins of the souls in purgatory. Lord, have mercy.
For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on the souls in purgatory. Christ, have mercy.
Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on the souls in purgatory. Lord, have mercy.

For those who have died, we pray:

For members of my family,

Through the mercy of God may they rest in peace.

For my friends, neighbors, and fellow parishioners . . .

For the priests who administered the sacraments to me . . .

For the religious men and women who were a part of my life . . .

For my teachers, counselors, and mentors . . .

For my schoolmates and workmates . . .

Through the mercy of God may they rest in peace.

For the doctors, nurses, and all health workers who gave me care . . .

For those who harmed me in any way . . .

For those I harmed . . .

For those who on earth prayed for me . . .

For those now in purgatory who are praying for me . . .

For every soul in purgatory, each one Your beloved son or daughter . . .

Welcome them into heaven, Dear Lord, where the perpetual light of Your mercy will shine upon them forever.
Amen.

May Almighty God Bless You,

Fr. Thomas Nathe

NATIONAL VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK

"God, what do you want me to do with my life for you?"

MARRIAGE | PRIESTHOOD | RELIGIOUS LIFE | DIACONATE

November 6-12, 2022
(and continues year-round!)

This annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the U.S. is dedicated to promoting vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to renew our prayers and support for those who are considering one of these particular vocations.

A vocation is a call from God to a life of committed love reflecting the love that God has for each of us. If you have not yet found your vocation, take time every day to ask God what he wants you to do with your life, and listen for his response in the stillness of your heart for peace and clarity.

If you are already living your vocation, be a good example of that vocation, share the challenges and the blessings of your vocation with others, and continue to pray for those still discerning God's will.

DIOCESAN PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

God our Father,
You call each of us
to use our gifts in the Body of Christ.

Inspire your people
with desire to know you,
the grace to understand your will,
and, with the strength of the Holy Spirit,
the courage to respond with love and freedom.

Send workers into your great harvest
so that the Gospel is preached,
the poor are served with love,
the suffering are comforted,
and your people are strengthened
by the sacraments.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

PARISH STEWARDSHIP TIME. TALENT. TREASURE.

"Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms."

1 Peter 4:10-11

WE ARE CALLED TO SHARE OUR GIFTS WITH OTHERS

Everything we have is a gift from God and we're called to share these gifts with others. This is stewardship.

Stewardship is our response to God's generosity. It's how we give back. It's how we spend our time, our energy, our thoughts and much more. While stewardship is often equated to money, we are more than the sum of our material value. Stewardship is a way of life.

Please prayerfully consider how you will respond to the call for this year's parish stewardship, which supports our parish and our ministries. Together with our parish family, seeds of stewardship can grow.

Trail Life™

It's the most wonderful time of the year! WAO360 Trail Life 2022 Annual Wreath Fundraiser. This is the only fundraiser for the year. All monies raised will go towards fun activities, outings, and supplies for the young men. Our Trailmen have backpacked with Father Nathe, participated in a 130 mile San Juan Islands Virtue tour by bike, camped at Camp Dakota, gone bowling, participated in the Worthy Derby 500, and many more bonding and enriching activities all because of your supportive patronage. Please continue to do so by choosing from our selection of locally sourced and freshly made wreaths. We need your support and commitment to continue this wholesome program to guide young virtuous Catholic men.

Please leave payment with a Trail Life member at the Narthex on one of the selling weekends. Please have all payments in by November 11th. Items will be available for pick up at the narthex starting November 26th.
