An Update on Me & The Coming Election

Jesus Christ: Yesterday, Today, and Forever ~

I'm interrupting our series on the Eucharist this week to talk about a couple of other things that are important to me this week: an update on my leg and the election.

It has been over six weeks since my surgery and almost seven weeks since I broke my leg. I saw my doctor this past week for another x-ray and counsel. While things are looking good for something like a full recovery, I still have to wait another 3½ weeks before I can begin to walk again. This was a blow for me, I will have waited more than 10 weeks from my break before I can take my first step, and that assumes that things progress as the doctor hopes. The healing in my fibula looks great, but my tibia suffered a bad break with shattered bone below the fracture line. That collection of bone and my screws through them, need more time to calcify and strengthen before I can start putting weight on my left foot. Patience, patience. In the meantime, I will begin physical therapy this week to get my wheelchair bound body going again, especially my legs.

I have been saying Mass for a few weeks now and it has been going well, wheelchair and all, so I'm going to up my number from five to six per week. From this week on, I'll say Mass on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Saturday afternoon, and two on Sundays – the 9:30, and switch back and forth between the 7:30 & Noon. Fr. Martin will say the Mass on Monday, Friday, and Saturday mornings, and either the 7:30 or Noon on Sunday. I am so grateful for him.

Turning now to the second part of this pastor's column, the election. All the presidential election cycles of my life have been nasty and this one is no exception. With that said, I have never feared civility in the results – I do this year. With former vice president Al Gore and Hillary Clinton telling Joe Biden not to concede the election to Trump, no matter what, and Trump claiming (rightly) that mail in ballots in many states can't be trusted; we have the recipe for disaster on November 4th, the day after the election. The only way I don't foresee rioting by leftists, is if Trump loses convincingly on election night and concedes by the next day – not likely. The outcome may not be known until the mail-in ballots are all counted days later, and of course Trump could win. What if it is close and both sides claim victory and neither will concede?

Let's not worry, for Jesus tells us not to. Is there something we can do? You guessed it – prayer. Here's a link to a 54 day novena: <http://www.54daynovena.com/Fifty%20Four%20Day%20Novena.pdf> I know it is only 52 days until the election but if you pray it, or any dedicated form of prayer, it will make a difference. A lot is at stake in this election. Below is a good article from one of my favorite Catholic writers, Phil Lawler, who writes for the Catholic Culture website. His sentiments echo mine.

Christ's Peace,

Fr. Thomas Nathe

Fear drives votes in this year's presidential contest

By Phil Lawler (bio - articles - email) | Sep 08, 2020

Once again it's silly season: we Americans are entering the final weeks of a presidential campaign. So we'll see all sorts of sensational claims about how one candidate or the other is the embodiment of evil, a threat to Western civilization. It happens every four years.

This year the rhetorical boilers will be especially well stoked because our country is experiencing a political crisis. We are severely divided, violent confrontations are spreading and escalating, and there is a widening divergence of opinion on fundamental moral issues. Every four years partisans say that they are frightened by the possibility that their rivals might come to power. This year I think they mean it. For faithful Catholic Americans, at least, there is reason to be fearful. Liberal politicians threaten not merely to enact policies that we find abhorrent, but to shut down our institutions and put us in jail if we resist their initiatives.

Over the years, pro-lifers have worried that liberals would legalize abortion... that they would force taxpayers to pay for abortion... that they would make the acceptance of abortion a condition for American foreign aid... that they would enable adolescents to obtain abortions without their parents' consent... that they would shut down pregnancy-help centers that did not offer abortion referrals. All those fears have been proven reasonable. Similarly, Christians once worried that the government would allow homosexual acts [sodomy]... would recognize same-sex partnerships... would put those partnerships on the same legal level as marriage... would encourage young people to embrace homosexuality... would then urge acceptance of other sexual options... would endorse self-mutilation in pursuit of some new "gender identity." All that too, has come to pass. Consider how far, and how fast, the liberal secularists have advanced their radical social agenda in the past generation—or even in the past ten years. Imagine how much further, and how much faster, they would push if they controlled all the arms of the federal government! The danger is particularly acute because this year, liberal propagandists have made it clear that their goal is to silence their opponents.

It is no coincidence that Joe Biden, that "devout" Catholic, has promised to renew the federal assault on the Little Sisters of the Poor, in a bid to ensure that there is not, somewhere in some corner of our republic, an order of Catholic nuns who do not include contraception coverage in their health-insurance plans. The goal of the radical left—which has become the goal of the Democratic Party—is not merely to make contraception available, but to make payment for contraception compulsory.

Which political party has promoted legislation to silence the pro-life sidewalk counselors outside abortion clinics? Which has suggested that members of the Knights of Columbus should be ineligible to serve as federal judges? Which has supported the lawsuits that would have shut down bakers who chose not to cater to homosexual weddings? Which has been in the forefront of keeping churches closed during the Covid epidemic—while abortion clinics remained open? Which has endorsed "hate speech" policies that could put Christians behind bars for proclaiming the Gospel?

In short, for many of us the key question in this year's election is: Which presidential candidate is more likely to put you in jail? No wonder the rhetoric is heated.

THE TIME TO ANSWER CHRIST'S CALL TO SERVE

CALLED TO SERVE as CHRIST

A campaign for our
PRIESTS, SISTERS & FAMILY OF FAITH

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, is Now!

The Called to Serve as Christ campaign is an expression of thanks for the hundreds of senior priests and sisters still with us and for whom we have the responsibility to offer care and sustenance. It is also an expression of hope in the young clergy and sisters who do not yet see retirement on the horizon, and those who will come long after them. God is good and faithful to every generation.

I am excited and humbled to lead and contribute to the Called to Serve as Christ campaign, and I offer my encouragement to all of you to join me in this groundbreaking, historic endeavor. To be grateful for both our past and future is something we can do with certainty and hope – because God is good and faithful, because his Son Jesus will never cease to issue his call, and because the Holy Spirit will never cease to tend the Father's garden with love, holiness, and wisdom.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Paul D. Etienne, DD, STL
Archbishop of Seattle

WHAT WILL OUR CAMPAIGN ACCOMPLISH?

The Archdiocese of Seattle initiated a $100 million campaign to provide long-term funding for retirement and medical needs of priests and women religious, as well as support of individual parishes. After this campaign, the Archdiocese hopes to:

- Establish a stronger position to provide a consistent, modest retirement for priests by moving from a pay-as-you-go system to a fully-funded model for priest pension plan and medical benefit for retired priests.
- Increase the ability of women religious communities to care for their senior members while continuing their ministry to God's people.
- Provide parishes more resources for their local ministries, services, works, and programs.
- Lead by example in prayer, action, and generosity.
- Reinforce a dynamic faith for the next generation of Catholics in Western Washington.

I am grateful to him who has strengthened me, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he considered me trustworthy in appointing me to the ministry.

– 1 Timothy 1:12

PARISH HAPPENINGS:

STEWARDSHIP THANK YOU!

Thank you to everyone that returned a Stewardship commitment form (or filled it out online). We have received commitments from 553 families and our goal was to receive over 550 commitments for 2021.

CALLED TO SERVE AS CHRIST CAMPAIGN (CTSAC) This weekend we kickoff our portion of the Archdiocesan Campaign to fully fund the priest retirement plan and medical expenses for our retired priests (like Father Mitchell-our founding Pastor). Funds will also be used to help the nuns in our Archdiocese to care for their elderly members. Lastly, our parish receives a rebate equal to 15% of funds donated to the campaign-these funds will be used to help pay for our Church Completion project. Once we reach our goal our rebate increases to 85% of every dollar donated! Our goal was set by the Archdiocese and is: $1,328,263.

Public Masses Have Resumed: We are overjoyed to welcome you back to public Masses-we have missed you so!!! We are back to our regular Mass schedule (see the front of the bulletin), and you have to sign up in advance to attend Mass. You can sign up by going to our home page and clicking on the button for Daily or Sunday Mass. Be sure to read all of the requirements on the signup and its attachments before signing up! We will continue to record the Masses so that those who cannot attend may participate at home.

We are strongly encouraging all of our parishioners to be thoughtful, kind, courteous, and charitable towards their fellow parishioners by staying home \(not going to Mass\) if they are sick, have a fever, or are in a vulnerable category.

OTHER HAPPENINGS:

CALLED TO SERVE AS CHRIST:

These are uncertain times. The coronavirus pandemic continues to impact directly the liturgical, ministerial, social, operational, and financial life of parishes. It may seem that now is an inopportune time to continue this campaign. In the face of these challenges, however, the needs of the Church in Western Washington remain. We have a financial and pastoral obligation to care for the priests and women religious who have faithfully and sacrificially served our people and parishes. While it is true that some may not be able to give at the level they normally would and others, perhaps, not at all, Archbishop Etienne feels it is nonetheless important, during this final wave of the Called to Serve as Christ campaign, to give everyone the same opportunity to hear the message of the campaign, to receive the invitation to participate, and consider joyfully a sacrificial gift .

40 Days for Life begins September 23rd. Prayer, fasting, and sharing life-affirming alternatives to abortion has helped save over 17,000 babies and their parents from abortion since 2007. Sharing post-abortion resource info has helped bring healing to those grieving a past abortion. That will NOT change. The public prayer vigil WILL change.

1. Sign up online <https://www.40daysforlife.com/local-campaigns/vancouver/>

Read the entire local campaign page before deciding whether to sign up.
2. Vigil participants must wear face coverings, observe 6 ft. social distancing, use hand held signs only, and no more than 5 people at a time. So remain on the east side of NE 116th Ave. on the sidewalk or area between the sidewalk and street.

3. PLEASE STAY AT HOME...if you are elderly, have a pre-existing condition, or feel ill.

4. If you have any problems using the online signup and/or any questions about the campaign, contact the local coordinator, Gerry Parmantier, call/text 360-831-7542 or email gerry1968@q.com

Are you a paper craft hobbyist?

Holy Redeemer is seeking blank, thank you, get well/encouragement, and birthday cards that are handmade by you, our fellow parishioners. We would like to get a stockpile to use for a variety of outreach opportunities. If you have cards you would like to donate, there will be a box in the Narthex for you to put them in. Thank you for your generosity! Contact Jamie at jamiiek@holyredeemervanc.org if you have questions, or would like to create an organizing system for these cards (in a file tote).
