The Precepts of the Catholic Faith

Third of Seven Part Series

You can read the first part on our website www.holyredeemervan.org under “resources – pastor’s columns”

Jesus Christ: Yesterday, Today, and Forever ~

This week we continue our series on the Precepts of the Catholic Church: “pre” meaning “before”, and “cept” meaning “life” – before there can be full life in God, these seven laws must be observed. Failure to live them out would constitute a mortal sin: when one has knowledge of them, and acts without undue coercion to disregard them. “The obligatory character of these positive laws decreed by pastoral authorities is meant to guarantee to the faithful the very necessary minimum in the spirit of prayer and moral effort, in the growth in love of God and neighbor”. Catechism #2041. This week we continue working our way through them by exploring the second precept. They are listed here again as a reminder.

The Precepts of the Catholic Church

1. To attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation and rest from servile works.
2. To observe the days of abstinence and fasting.
3. To confess our sins to a priest at least once a year. Traditionally, during the seasons of Lent or Easter.
4. To receive Our Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist at least once a year: preferably during Lent or the Easter Seasons.
5. To contribute to the support of the Church [Stewardship of time, talent, and treasure (tithe)].
6. To obey the laws of the Church concerning Matrimony [Catholics who marry are obligated to wed in the Catholic Church].
7. To participate in the Church's mission of Evangelization of Souls.

Forgiveness of sins is so important that God decided to sacramentalize it. After Jesus' Resurrection and just before His Ascension into heaven, He breathed on His Apostles and said: “Receive the Holy Spirit, whose sins you forgive are forgiven them; those whose sins you retain are retained.” Jn 20:22-23 Notice that one has to know the sins of another in order to either absolve them or retain them. Later in the New Testament, James says: “Confess your sins to one another ...” Jm 5:16.

Today the Catechism of the Catholic Church calls that sacrament by various names: Confession, Reconciliation, Penance, Forgiveness, and even Conversion. A supernatural thing happens when we go to Confession: our sins are absolved (removed), no matter how bad or how often they have been committed, and we are restored and strengthened in our life of grace with God. There is no other way on earth to have our mortal sins absolved after Baptism than through sacramental Confession. So why don't more people take advantage of it? Answer: ignorance and pride.

After Adam and Eve had sinned, they too did not want to confess their guilt to God, they hid remember? Its human nature to protect ourselves, and confessing our sins feels a whole lot like making ourselves more vulnerable, not stronger. Ask yourself this: is a marriage stronger or weaker after a spouse has apologized for hurting the other?

At its core, the Sacrament of Confession is about restoring our relationship with God to what it should be.

The saints went to Confession often not because they had mortal or even venial sins to confess (they had faults for sure), but because they relied on God's grace from the sacrament to help them grow in holiness. Not only does the sacrament of Confession absolve us of our sins, but because it is a sacrament, the sacrament bestows a grace that helps the penitent heal from their sins and resist the temptations to fall into them again.

Although the Church tells us that we need to go to Confession at least once a year on pain of mortal sin, the Church has always recommended that we go monthly. Pope Francis has revealed that he goes to Confession every other week. St. Teresa of Calcutta and her entire order of sisters known as the Sisters of Charity, go to Confession weekly, I try to do the same. Many saints used this sacrament weekly too. Please take advantage of Sacramental Confession and try to go monthly. It might be the greatest thing you ever did for yourself. Confessions at Holy Redeemer are on Fridays from 4-5:15pm, Saturdays 2:30-4:15, and Sundays from 7:45-8:15 & 10:00-10:45.

The third Precept sets us up for the fourth precept, in that we can only receive Holy Communion in a state of grace. If one is aware of a mortal sin, then that person needs to go to Confession before receiving Holy Communion lest they commit another mortal sin at Mass.

Next week: precept #4.

May Our Lord and His Blessed Mother Keep You,

Fr. Thomas Nathe

☀️ THANK YOU ☀️

For Bringing Hope and Making a Difference

This week we would like to give a giant “Shout Out” to the Homebound Ministry Team. As Winston Churchill once said, “Never was so much owed by so many to so few”. This ministry is one of those “invisible” ministries that is so instrumental to the execution of the faith. Indeed, they go above and beyond the call of duty.

These individuals often see people who have no relatives or family to visit them. They are there to comfort, pray, and bring Holy Communion to them. Many are with them at or near the end of their lives. They are the very embodiment of the 5th Corporal Act of Mercy: “Visit the Sick”.

Please join us in thanking our Holy Redeemer Homebound Ministry Team.
