Things Every Catholic Should Know

Jesus Christ: Yesterday, Today, and Forever ~

Following up on our seven part series on the Precepts of the Church, which you can find on our website under “Resources,” I thought I’d write this column on the basics every Catholic should know, or at least what can fit on one sheet of paper. You might want to save this and magnetize it to your refrigerator.

May God Bless You,

Fr. Thomas Nathe

Attributes of God

- 1. Eternal: no beginning and no ending
- 2. Infinite: in knowledge, power, and love

God is a Holy Trinity

There is one God in three divine persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Jesus Christ

Is God, with no beginning or ending, co-eternal with the Father and Holy Spirit, the Word of God who took flesh and revealed that He is God’s Son, the sole Redeemer of the human race.

Why God Created Us

To know Him, to love Him, and to serve Him, so we can be happy with Him in heaven.

Why Jesus Christ Established the Catholic Church [the Mission of the Church]

- 1. For the greater glory of God
- 2. For the salvation of souls

The Two Greatest Commandments

- 1. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. (Mt. 22:37)
- 2. Love one another as Jesus Christ has loved you . (Jn. 13:34)

An outward visible sign, instituted by Jesus Christ, that gives the grace it signifies.

- 4. To receive Our Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist at least once a year: preferably during the Lenten or Easter Seasons.
- 5. To contribute to the support of the Church [Stewardship of time, talent, and treasure (tithe)].
- 6. To obey the laws of the Church concerning Matrimony [Catholics who marry are obligated to wed in the Catholic Church].

Prayer for Labor Day

As the sun rises to bring in the new day:

We remember those who descend into the earth, their work begins in darkness, pulling from the earth, the resources we steward.

We remember those who work inside a building away from the light and brightness of the day.

We remember those who work outside in the harsh elements of our world, the bitter cold and sweltering heat of extremes.

We remember those who do not have a job to go to, who are struggling to meet the needs of their daily living expenses, for whom the day becomes long and arduous.

As the sun sets to bring in the evening of rest:

We remember those who work in the night.

We remember those who are trying to recover from their labor and toils of the day.

We remember those who participate in unsafe and dangerous work.

We pray for a renewed sense of dignity in their lives and in their work.

God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the worker. Make a place in our hearts for compassion to the men and women who labor tirelessly for basic necessities. Ensure a place for the men and women who are struggling to find work. Grant us your wisdom to greet and care for those who are unable to work due to illness or circumstances that prevent their participation. Be with the children who are not able to run and play, but instead must put in a hard day's work to help their family afford to eat, to live. Be with us all, Christ Jesus, as we go about the busyness of our work. Hold us accountable not only for our actions, but most importantly to each of our neighbors. May we continue to work together to bring about your reign!

The Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary | Sacred Art
By studying Sacred Art, we fuel our prayer and contemplation. In this episode, Dr. Ben Akers sits down with Taylor Kemp to examine the theological nuances contained in Bartolome Murillo's depiction of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Mother Teresa: No Greater Love
Mother Teresa: No Greater Love is a soaring tribute to a spiritual icon, a powerful witness of authentic Christian charity, and a guidepost for all who seek hope in our turbulent times: Mother Teresa of Calcutta. This film reveals not just who Mother Teresa was, but how her singular vision to serve Christ in the poor continues to be realized through the Missionaries of Charity today.
