The Communion of Saints

Jesus Christ: Lord of lords and King of kings ~

Last Tuesday evening we held our annual one-night mission on the holy angels hosted by a priest of Opus Sanctorum Angelorum (work of the holy angels). People who attended the mission had the opportunity to attend Mass, hear a talk on the angels, witness three people consecrate themselves to their guardian angels, begin a program to consecrate themselves to their guardian angel next year, or if they have done that already, begin a multi-year program to consecrate themselves to all the angels. What a blessing the ministry of Opus Sanctorum Angelorum has been to us. The mission coming so close to All Saints and All Souls days this year, drives home the reality of the Communion of the Saints and our relationship with them.

This Wednesday, November 1st, is All Saints Day and it is a Holy Day of Obligation: we will have Masses at 8:30am, 11am, and 7pm. The following day, Thursday, November 2nd, we commemorate All Souls Day, and while it is not a Holy Day of Obligation, we will have Mass at our regularly scheduled weekday Mass time of 8:30am. These two holy days are the Church's equivalent of Memorial Day, when we honor the dead with our love, gratitude, and prayers. There is a great spiritual bond between the Communion of Saints: the Church Triumphant (those in Heaven), the Church Suffering (those in Purgatory), and the Church Militant (the Church on earth).

On specific days throughout the year, we honor saints (those people who have gone before us who led heroic lives of holiness) while asking for their prayers from heaven. On those days we might cover about 200 of the saints, but what about the other roughly 9,800 saints that the Church has canonized (formally named)? On November 1st every year we honor all the saints, known and unknown to us; we admire them, strive to emulate them, thank God for them, and invoke their intercession from heaven. Just as we ask people on earth to pray for us, so too we ask the angels and saints of Heaven to pray for us. The saints are literally with God in Heaven, making their help a truly selfless act done for God's greater glory and our ultimate sanctification. In short, they have immediate access to God and their prayers are holier than ours—what a powerful resource for all of us. Please ask specific saints to intercede for you and others throughout your life—and thank them.

Almost all people who are going to heaven still need to perform penance for their sins. Fortunately for us, God has a plan for that—Purgatory. We know that vice and sin do not exist in heaven, yet they exist in us. Purgatory is the process by which God's justice is satisfied through our remorse (painful), and we are purified by God and prepared to enter heaven. This process of purgation lasts for various lengths of 'time' and intensity depending upon the state of each person's soul at death. The Catechism of the Catholic Church does a very good job explaining what Purgatory is, as do the websites www.catholicanswers.org and www.newadvent.org.

On November 2nd we commemorate all those people who are in Purgatory with our prayers and penance for their progress toward, and ultimate happiness in, Heaven. The whole month of November is a time when we pray for the dead and offer our Masses for them. Just as we pray for someone on earth when they are in need of help, so too do we pray for those in the state of Purgatory. They can no longer merit anything themselves, so whatever we do for them is of great help: prayer, novenas, fasting, indulgences, etc. Remember, to do unto others as you would have them do unto you. If we pray and offer sacrifices for the dead in this life, the odds grow exponentially that someone will do the same for us when we die. With the assistance of all the saints, let's help all those on their way to Heaven with our prayers.

In Christ Our Lord,

Fr. Thomas Nathe

PARISH STEWARDSHIP TIME. TALENT. TREASURE.

“For we are God’s handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.”

Ephesians 2:10

YOUR TALENT
IS GOD’S GIFT
TO YOU. HOW WILL YOU USE
IT FOR HIM?

Everything we have is a gift from God and we’re called to share these gifts with others. Often stewardship is equated to money, but we are more than the sum of our material value.

Sharing our talents is one way we can live a life of stewardship. God entrusted us with our individual talents to help build up His Kingdom. Today we are called to share through service and ministry. What talent could you bring to our parish community?

If you haven’t already decided on your parish stewardship commitment, please prayerfully consider God’s gifts to you and make your pledge. Please return your parish stewardship commitment form today in the collection basket, to the parish office, or through the mail.

HOLY REDEEMER ANNUAL STEWARDSHIP Drive

Fr. Nathe asks every parishioner to commit to glorify God and Sanctify souls in 2024 through stewardship of your time, talent, and treasure. Thank you to the 238 individuals from 196 families who have made 942 individual ministry commitments and have pledged $578,722 to the parish for 2024. If you have not yet done so, scan the QR code or submit a stewardship brochure today.

A DISCERNMENT RETREAT

Discover, Grow & Respond

Saturday,
November 11, 2023

Old River Pastoral Center
West Linn, Oregon

Journey is an annual retreat hosted by the Society of Mary for young, unmarried women, ages 18-28, who are seeking to discern the Lord's call for their lives. This one-day retreat provides a place for women to spend the day with Jesus, listening to him and deepening in his vision and desires for their vocation. The formation talks, small group sharing, time with the Sisters, and deep prayer moments enable participants to connect heart to heart with the Lord, discover his call more clearly, and grow in their desire to follow him. Women will be strengthened by sharing the journey with others and receive tools for their discernment that enable them to take concrete steps in responding to the Lord's voice.

Give a Gift of Love to Your Family

- Pre-Arrangement is a gift of love to your family and a statement of faith.
- Pre-Arrangement is a practical decision, free of grief and emotion.
- Pre-Arrangement eliminates price increases.
- Pre-Arrangement allows family members time to mourn and for consolation at the time of death, instead of making business decisions.
- Pre-Arrangement plans for burial in sacred ground.

A Sacred Place

Catholic cemeteries exist because we believe in the resurrection of the body at the end of time. If there was no promise of eternal life, there would be no need for Catholic cemeteries.

The Catholic cemetery is sacred, because of a blessing or consecration, and by the sacred function it performs on behalf of the entire Christian community: It holds the bodies, once temples of the Holy Spirit, until the Lord comes again in glory. As a sacred place, a Catholic cemetery is a place that serves the faithful and witnesses to the entire world the Good News of Jesus Christ and the hope we share in resurrection.

- All Catholics are welcome to be buried in a Catholic Cemetery—they do not need to be registered at the parish that has a cemetery.
- Non-Catholic spouses and family members may be buried in a Catholic Cemetery with their loved ones.
- Catholic Cemeteries provide burials at no cost for unborn infants and for children.
- While the Catholic Church recommends the pious custom of burying the bodies of the dead, cremation is an option.
- Mother Joseph Catholic Cemetery of Vancouver offers a variety of burial options including full body inground burial, inground burial of cremated remains, and above ground columbaria for cremated remains.

Last Thanksgiving, with your help and generosity, the Vancouver Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to provide Thanksgiving food boxes to 450 families, serving 1,356 people; 114 of those boxes were delivered to the homebound. The Society is providing the program again this year, as many of our neighbors and families are feeling the pinch of rising inflation. We will safely make this happen, but we are seeking your help and support.

Your donations of non-perishable food items and financial support are needed. We have delivered grocery bags to your parish; we encourage children to decorate the bags. The food can be put in the designated area in your church or brought directly to our office Monday-Friday from 9 AM to 3 PM. Financial support can be donated online through our secure site at www.svdpvancouverusa.org or you may send it directly to our office at 2456 NE Stapleton Road, Vancouver, WA 98661.

We will begin accepting phone calls and online registrations from families wishing to receive a food box on Monday, October 30 from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm. We will continue to take registrations on subsequent days until our list is full. Our number is 360-694-5388. Our Thanksgiving food boxes will be distributed on Saturday, November 18, 2023, during scheduled times provided in advance to our families.

We are full of gratitude for your continued support. Thank you and God bless you during this season of giving.

THIS WEEK ON FORMED

Week of October 29, 2023

Saint Charles Borromeo: The Good Shepherd

As the Cardinal-nephew of Pope Pius IV, Saint Charles Borromeo was one of the wealthiest and most powerful men in all of Rome. Yet he chose the extraordinary challenge of reforming the enormous Archdiocese of Milan to the pampered life of a Renaissance prince, and willingly spent himself in the service of his flock.

The Communion of Saints | Sacred Art

In celebration of All Saints' Day, Dr. Ben Akers and Taylor Kemp sit down to discuss Giusto de Menabuoi's 'Paradise' and how the saints give us hope by showing us that holiness is possible.

Brother Francis - All Souls Day

In this episode of Brother Francis, kids can learn about All Souls Day and how we take time to remember those who have passed away.
