The Eucharist

Part 15 of 20

Jesus Christ: Yesterday, Today and Forever ~

Today we continue our twenty part series on the Eucharist using Trent Horn's book: 20 Answers-The Eucharist. In case you missed any of the first fourteen, you can find them here <https://www.holyredeemervan.org/documents/collection/pastor-s-column>. This is in keeping with Archbishop Etienne's pastoral letter on the Eucharist that you can find here (in case you missed it) <http://www.seattlearchdiocese.org/Assets/ARCH/NWC-Feature-ABE-Pastoral-Letter-snglpg.pdf>. Enjoy

May God Bless You,

Fr. Thomas Nathe

Question #15:

Can non-Catholics receive the Eucharist?

A person must normally be baptized or received into the Catholic Faith in order to receive the Eucharist and even then that person must be free from mortal sin or canonical penalties such as excommunication. For example, the Didache admonished first-century Christians to “let no one eat or drink of your Eucharist, unless they have been baptized into the name of the Lord; for concerning this also the Lord has said, ‘Give not that which is holy to the dogs.’”

Keep in mind that this rule is not carried out because of a sense of spiritual superiority or because the Church wants non-Catholics to feel bad. Instead, it is done out of a sense of concern for non-Catholics who might want approach the sacrament.

The Catholic Church teaches that the Eucharist truly is the body and blood of Christ. When the communicant says “amen” upon receiving the Eucharist, he is saying that he believes not only in this tenet of the Faith, but also in all that the Catholic Church teaches. If he does not believe these things, then his consent to receiving the sacrament cannot be valid. Of course, if he desires the Eucharist then he can always be received into the Catholic Church so that his communion with the Church will be as complete as his communion with Christ in the Eucharist.

A non-Catholic may receive the Eucharist only if he or she is a member of a church that holds the same view of the Eucharist as the Catholic Church. This is the case, for example, with Eastern Orthodox churches, whose bishops and priests retain valid apostolic authority but are in schism since they do not recognize the primacy and infallibility of Peter's successor in the bishop of Rome, the pope. It is licit to administer the sacraments of penance, anointing of the sick, and Eucharist to members of these churches, "if they seek such on their own accord and are properly disposed. This is also valid for members of other Churches which in the judgment of the Apostolic See are in the same condition in regard to the sacraments as these Eastern Churches."

This may also be done for other Christians, such as a Protestant who wishes to convert to the Catholic faith (and thus believes in the Real Presence) but is in danger of dying. The Code of Canon Law states, "If the danger of death is present or if, in the judgment of the diocesan bishop or conference of bishops, some other grave necessity urges it, Catholic ministers administer these same sacraments [penance, Eucharist, and anointing of the sick] licitly also to other Christians not having full communion with the Catholic Church, who cannot approach a minister of their own community and who seek such on their own accord, provided that they manifest Catholic faith in respect to these sacraments and are properly disposed."

The Church also teaches that under limited circumstances Catholics can receive the Eucharist in non-Catholic churches that have valid sacraments (e.g., Eastern Orthodox or Assyrian Church of the East, for example). This may be the case if someone is in a foreign country that lacks a Catholic presence and so is unable to attend Mass. The Code of Canon Law states that "whenever necessity requires or a genuine spiritual advantage commends it, and provided the danger of error or indifferentism is avoided, Christ's faithful for whom it is physically or morally impossible to approach a Catholic minister, may lawfully receive the sacraments of penance, the Eucharist, and anointing of the sick from non-Catholic ministers in whose Churches these sacraments are valid."

A PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

FOR THE RENEWAL AND SPREAD OF THE FAITH

On the feast of Pentecost, May 23, Archbishop Paul D. Etienne will promulgate a new pastoral plan for the Archdiocese of Seattle. The archbishop invites Catholics to pray a novena to the Holy Spirit leading up to Pentecost (May 14–22), for the intention of the renewal and spread of the faith. The novena prayer is a translation of the traditional Pentecost hymn Veni Creator Spiritus.

Come, Creator Spirit,
visit the minds of those who are yours;
fill with heavenly grace
the hearts that you have made.

You who are named the Paraclete, gift of God most high,
living fountain, fire, love
and anointing for the soul.

You are sevenfold in your gifts,
you are finger of God's right hand,
you, the Father's solemn promise putting words upon our lips.

Kindle a light in our senses,
pour love into our hearts,
infirmities of this body of ours overcoming with strength secure.

The enemy drive from us away,
peace then give without delay;
with you as guide to lead the way we avoid all cause of harm.

Grant we may know the Father through you,
and come to know the Son as well,
and may we always cling in faith to you,
the Spirit of them both.

Amen.

PARISH HAPPENINGS

Church Completion Update: This week we did a walk-through of the project and identified all remaining work that needs to be done, touched up, or fixed. The list is small and there is nothing on it that should take very long to get done. So, the contractor should be turning the building over to us very soon. As soon as that happens we will start readying the Adoration Chapel for use-stay tuned.

Birthright: Holy Redeemer's Prepares Ministry is hosting a fundraiser for Birthright! Volunteers will be collecting returned bottles before each Mass this weekend and next weekend May 22/23. Thank you for supporting families who choose life!

172nd Ave. Entrance: Great news, at long last we are able to use the entrance/exit from 172nd Ave. again. For the Vigil and Sunday Masses all the doors of the Church are unlocked now for easier access.

Rummage Sale: We will not be having our annual Rummage Sale in June. There is a possibility that we might have one in the Fall but we will have to see how COVID is doing before planning that. Stay tuned...

Calling all ushers, greeters, lectors, and extraordinary ministers of communion (EMs): We need you-please signup to serve through the end of June using this link: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/8050444afa82aa46-sign9>

A friendly reminder: Clark County is in phase 3 now so you do not need to signup for Mass. Masks still must be worn so be sure to bring one! Please be welcoming and allow your fellow parishioners to sit next to you-it is kind and safe to do so.

We will continue to record the Masses so that those who cannot attend may participate at home.

Staying Close to Jesus

Angelus: We live stream the Angelus and prayer to Our Lady of Seattle for the end of the coronavirus Monday through Friday at noon and we invite you to join. The prayers are streamed through Facebook Live on our parish Facebook page. You do not need a Facebook account to view the stream. Facebook may prompt you to create an account, but you can simply say "Not Now" and watch the video.

Evening Prayer: To help those at home stay close to Jesus, we have taken this ministry online and are making it more frequent. Join us Monday through Thursday at 5:00pm for Evening Prayer. The prayers are streamed through Facebook Live on our parish Facebook page. Download This Week's Evening Prayers Here
