Jesus Wants Us to Be Holy

Jesus Christ: the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

In reference to helping his parishioners to grow in holiness, a good priest friend of mine says, "I can't make anyone do anything, all I can do is offer." He's correct in saying that a priest can't make anyone do anything: unlike the government that can make us pay taxes, serve in the military in wartime, force us to send our children to anti-Christian government schools because they won't let our tax dollars follow our kids to Catholic schools, etc. With that said, my priest friend's statement would be more accurate if it was: "while I can't make anyone do anything, God has entrusted to me the responsibility to try; through example, instruction, inspiration, and warning, to help people grow in holiness." If you know me at all, then you know this is something I take to heart.

I want you in heaven, I also want your loved ones in heaven. In order for the latter to happen, we need to work on being holy, for others are affected by our example for good or ill. Perhaps you've heard this saying: "Give me a holy priest, and I'll show you devout parishioners; give me a devout priest, and I'll show you good parishioners; give me a good priest, and I'll show you so-so parishioners; give me a so-so priest, and I'll show you bad parishioners; give me a bad priest, and he'll show his parishioners the way to hell." To be fair, those statements apply to all of us: "Give me a holy spouse and I'll show you . . . ; Give me holy parents and I'll show you . . . ; Give me holy grandparents and I'll show you . . . ; Give me a holy parishioner and I'll show you . . ." What each of us do with our lives has a profound impact on our relationship with God – and the relationship others have with God – whether we can see it or not.

Serving God through His Church with our time, talent, and treasure, is a blessing and responsibility that Jesus Christ has bestowed upon each of us. The blessing is in our own sanctification: we receive in the measure we give; there is no greater joy than communion with God, and eternal life with Him. The opposite is true too; there is no greater misery than separation from God, especially in the life to come.

Your parish staff and I pour ourselves out to provide you with opportunities to serve God, and I am grateful and inspired by those of you who respond by volunteering your time, talent, and treasure; some of you significantly! For those of you who are good stewards of Our Lord's Church, thank you so much. Your sacrifices are doing you and others more good than you realize.

Yet I am perplexed by the lack of response from the majority of Catholics. For example, we have Mass seven days a week – how many who can, take advantage of it? Confessions three days a week – how many take advantage of it? Rosary starts 20 minutes before every Mass – how many take advantage of it? Multiple programs throughout the year for parents and grandparents to put their children and grandchildren in, yet how many kids don't show up? With dozens of different opportunities to volunteer in the parish – how many take advantage of even one?! God is watching us my friends, and so are our loved ones who ignore God, yet depend on our sacrifices to keep their worldly souls from falling into hell.

You and I were made to be saints, for Jesus says, "Be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect." Mt 5:48. One day when we get to heaven, if not before, we will be saints. Yet many will not make it to heaven if people like us don't do what we can to share our faith through our time, talent, and treasure in this life. That's not an exaggeration. In heaven we will be made aware of all the souls that made it there because of the sacrifices we made for our faith and the Church in this life. Likewise, we will be made aware of all the souls who didn't make it (potentially our own) because of our poor example and lack of effort. If God is our highest priority, and He should be, then shouldn't our day planners and checkbooks reflect that?

October 30th, 2022

Stewardship is the practice of considering and treating all things on earth, including one's own life (time, talent, and treasure) as belonging to God; and oneself as the manager or 'steward' of all that belongs to God. [Mt 25:14-30, Lk 12:42-48 & 16:1-13, 1Cor 4:1-2, 1Pt 4:10] God gifts us, not the other way around, with the stewardship of His Church for His greater glory and the salvation of souls. And this is a precious gift that we can only take advantage of this life, not in the one to come.

If you are registered at Holy Redeemer, you received a letter last week introducing you to this year's annual stewardship drive. Please take the time to read it and fill out the stewardship brochure. We have a very active parish, yet it takes all of us contributing to make Our Lord's Kingdom a reality here and now at Holy Redeemer.

At Mass we took the time, if you hadn't done so already through the mailing we will sent you, to sign-up for some of the ministries and activities that would help you and others grow in their faith. Please prayerfully consider committing to at least one thing; more is better, yet at least one thing.

Of course stewardship is also about tithing. The Church would simply cease to exist without one another's financial sacrifices. Money manager Dave Ramsey says, "Tithing was created for our benefit. It is to teach us how to keep God first in our lives and how to be unselfish people. Unselfish people make better husbands, wives, [parents], friends, relatives, employees and employers. God is trying to teach us how to prosper over time."

Prosper into eternity, and help others while we're at it. God has given us everything, and is so generous that he lets us keep 90% – yet 10% belongs to him. Please remember to continue moving toward Our Lord's expectation of a 10% tithe of your annual income to his Church: 5% to our parish, 1% to the Annual Catholic Appeal, and 4% to other Catholic charities. If you are not already at a 10% tithe, then take a 1% step this year toward that goal; for example: if you're currently giving only 1% of your annual income to the Church, commit to increase that to 2%, if 9% then 10%, etc. We receive in the measure we give. Trust God. He will take care of you.

Again, I would like to thank all of you who do give in so many meaningful ways. The varied ministries at Holy Redeemer attest to the sacrifices that many of you have already made for so many. It is because of your sacrifices that we have been able to grow our opportunities for discipleship at Holy Redeemer Parish. Please renew your commitment to the stewardship of the Church and Holy Redeemer Parish by volunteering your time, talent, and treasure; and continue to grow in your faith and to help others grow in theirs. I thank you for your continued stewardship of Holy Redeemer, and the Church at large.

May Almighty God Bless You,

Fr. Thomas Nathe

Saint Charles Borromeo: The Good Shepherd

As the Cardinal-nephew of Pope Pius IV, Saint Charles Borromeo was one of the wealthiest and most powerful men in all of Rome. Yet he chose the extraordinary challenge of reforming the enormous Archdiocese of Milan to the pampered life of a Renaissance prince, and willingly spent himself in the service of his flock.

The Catholic Take on Halloween

Remembering the dead in purgatory, celebrating the Saints, and the Catholic perspective on Halloween.

Purgatory by Dr. Scott Hahn

This remarkable talk is an essential resource for answering the various objections that Protestants make to the Catholic Faith, including the authority of the Pope, the doctrine of Purgatory, devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Saints, the Sacrament of Confession, and the Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist.

Soul Cake, soul cake, please good missus, a soul cake.

An apple, a pear, a plum, or a cherry, any good thing to make us all merry.

One for Peter, two for Paul, & three for Him who made us all.

Traditional British song

Soul Cakes are small round spiced cakes, made for All Soul's Day to celebrate and commemorate the dead. Traditionally, soul cakes would be given out to children and the poor who would go from door to door, begging for alms or "Souling", on All Soul's Day. Every cake eaten would represent a soul freed from Purgatory. The giving and receiving of soul cakes started in the Middle Ages and is widely seen as the origin of trick or treating.

PLEDGE TODAY.

Everything we have is a gift from God and we're called to share these gifts with others. This is stewardship.

Within our parish we can sow the seeds of stewardship and watch them grow. What seeds will you sow for the parish?

If you haven't already decided on your parish stewardship commitment, please prayerfully consider God's gifts to you and make your pledge. Please return your 2023 pledge card today in the collection basket, to the parish office, or through the mail.

Last Thanksgiving, with your generosity, the Vancouver Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to provide Thanksgiving Food Boxes to 506 families, serving 1,411 people, including 120 food box deliveries. The Society is providing the program again this year, as many of our neighbors and families are feeling the effects of the lingering burdens of the pandemic, rising inflation, and the uncertainties of the current economy. We will make this happen safely, with your continued prayers and support.

We need your donations of non-perishable food items and financial support. Grocery bags have been delivered to your parish, and school children were encouraged to decorate the bags. Your food donation can be put in the designated area in your church or brought directly to our office at 2456 NE Stapleton Road, Vancouver, WA 98661, Monday-Friday from 9 AM to 3 PM. Financial support can be donated online through our secure site at www.svdpvancouverusa.org or you may send it directly to our office.

We will begin accepting phone calls from families wishing to register for a food box on Monday, October 24 at 10:00 am to 1:00 pm. We will continue subsequent days to take registration until our list is full. Our number is 360-694-5388. We are excited to share we will also provide online registration this year, by visiting our updated website at: <http://www.svdpvancouverusa.org>. Our Thanksgiving food boxes will be distributed on the morning of Saturday, November 19, 2022, during a scheduled time provided in advance to our families.

We are full of gratitude for your continued support and remember you in our prayers. Thank you and may God bless you during this season of giving.

The Catholic Cemetery

A Sacred Place

Catholic cemeteries exist because of our belief in the resurrection of the body at the end of time. If there was no promise of eternal life, there would be no need for Catholic cemeteries.

The Catholic cemetery is sacred, not only because of a blessing or consecration, but also by the sacred function it performs on behalf of the entire Christian community: It holds the bodies, once temples of the Holy Spirit, until the Lord comes again in glory. As a sacred place, a Catholic cemetery is a place that serves the faithful and witnesses to the entire world the Good News of Jesus Christ and the hope we share in resurrection.

- All Catholics are welcome to be buried in a Catholic Cemetery—they do not need to be registered at the particular parish that has a cemetery ministry.
- Non-Catholic spouses and family members may be buried in a Catholic Cemetery with their loved ones.
- Catholic Cemeteries provide burials at no cost for unborn infants and for children.
- While the Catholic Church recommends the pious custom of burying the bodies of the dead, cremation is also an option.
- Mother Joseph Catholic Cemetery of Vancouver offers a variety of burial options including full body inground burial, inground burial of cremated remains, and above ground columbaria for cremated remains.

Your Catholic Cemetery is a Gift

Mother Joseph Catholic Cemetery of Vancouver has served the Catholic Community since 1871, and was consecrated in 1882. Mother Joseph herself is buried in this sacred place. Masses are offered monthly at the Proto-Cathedral of St. James the Greater Catholic Church, for all the souls buried there. Choosing this sacred cemetery for your burial affirms the values of your faith and ensures that you share this as your legacy.

Catholic Cemeteries are sacred places, the final resting place for members of our Catholic Faith Communities and their families on our common Journey to God. These cemeteries are signs of hope, places of prayer, and witness our belief in the resurrection promised by Jesus Christ. They are the gate of heaven. Burial in the consecrated ground of the Catholic cemetery allows you to share your faith values with future generations. This legacy of faith is your gift to them.

You are encouraged to consider the value of pre-planning your burial! Act now and receive a $100.00 discount per pre-need burial rite!
