Christmas & New Year 2022/23

Merry Christ's Mass and a Happy New Year

“And in that region there were shepherds out in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And an angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were filled with fear. And the angel said to them, ‘Be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good news of a great joy which will come to all the people; for to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. And this will be a sign for you: you will find a babe wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger.’ And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying, ‘Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among men with whom he is pleased!’” Luke 2:8-14.

God was born for us, what a consolation.

Regardless of what is going on in the world and our personal lives, we can have supernatural peace and joy when our lives are lived in Jesus Christ. We can have that, because God has come down from heaven in the divine person of Jesus Christ, to give us His Catholic Church, His Word, the Sacraments, communion with Him, and consolation from Him. So let us give thanks and praise to God for the virgin birth of Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace; a peace the world cannot give or understand.

Let us also resolve to serve Jesus Christ in the coming year, a year that may start to see great challenges for the world. Challenges that may be scary for people without a relationship with Jesus Christ; challenges that we can help others manage better because of our relationship with Jesus Christ.

Please strive in the coming year to share your relationship with Jesus with others, others who may not have the peace we take for granted; knowing why we're here, that Jesus walks with us, and where we're going. To that end, please keep working on daily prayer and spiritual reading until it becomes a habit. Please strive to live the seven precepts of the Church: 1) attend Mass on holy days of obligation (Sundays are always holy days of obligation); 2) confession at least once a year (ideally monthly); 3) receive Holy Communion at least once a year (must be in a state of grace – hence the sacrament of confession); 4) observe the Church's laws on fasting and abstinence; 5) observe the Church's (God's) laws on marriage; 6) be a steward of the Church through the commitment of your time, talent and treasure; 7) evangelize according to ability and opportunity. If one is trying to live all these things, especially in our super-secular age, then God will grant that person (you and others because of you) great graces.

Finally this – I love you. I feel embarrassed and guilty in saying that. Guilty because I could do much better and more; embarrassed because I feel like such a hypocrite knowing that I could be doing much better and more! But it must be true at some level, like a parent who loves their children but feels as if they are muddling through for the most part. That ‘muddling’ is motivated by something, and that something is love. It is critically important for you to know that God loves you, and while it isn't as important for you to know that your pastor loves you, it's still important.

Baby Jesus Loves You and Smiles on You,

Fr. Thomas Nathe

The Epiphany of the Lord

This year the Epiphany, or Three Kings Day, falls on Friday, January 6th. So, what is this feast about? According to the catechism: The Epiphany is the manifestation of Jesus as Messiah of Israel, Son of God and Savior of the world. The great feast of Epiphany celebrates the adoration of Jesus by the wise men (magi) from the East, together with his baptism in the Jordan and the wedding feast at Cana in Galilee.

Popular Epiphany customs include chalking the door. We invite you to adopt this custom in your family. The family gathers to ask God's blessing on their home and on those who live in or visit the home. It is an invitation for Jesus to be a daily guest in our home, our comings and goings, our conversations, our work and play, our joys and sorrows. A traditional way of doing this is to use chalk to write above the home's entrance, 20 + C + M + B + 23. The letters C, M, B have two meanings. They are the initials of the traditional names of the three magi: Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar. They also abbreviate the Latin words Christus mansionem benedicat, "May Christ bless the house." The "+" signs represent the cross and 2023 is the year.

Blessing the Chalk

V. Our help is the name of the Lord:

R. The maker of heaven and earth.

V. The Lord shall watch over your going out and your coming in:

R. From this time forth for evermore.

Let us pray. Loving God, bless this chalk which you have created, that it may be helpful to your people; and grant that through the invocation of your most Holy Name that we who use it in faith to write upon the door of our home the names of your holy ones Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar, may receive health of body and protection of soul for all who dwell in or visit our home; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Instructions for Blessing the Home

Using the blessed chalk mark the lintel of your front door (or front porch step) as follows:

20 + C + M + B + 23 while saying:

The three Wise Men, Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar followed the star of God's Son who became human two thousand and fifteen years ago. May Christ bless our home and remain with us throughout the new year. Amen. Then offer the following prayer: Visit, O blessed Lord, this home with the gladness of your presence. Bless all who live or visit here with the gift of your love; and grant that we may manifest your love to each other and to all whose lives we touch. May we grow in grace and in the knowledge and love of you; guide, comfort, and strengthen us in peace, O Jesus Christ, now and forever.

Amen
